

Securities and Financial Printing

A specialized division of Carbon Copy Digital

CALGARY • EDMONTON • MONTREAL • NEW YORK • TORONTO • VANCOUVER

Done Right... On Time.

Our Securities and Financial Printing division is built around the following principles:

- Integrity
- Flexibility
- Transparency
- Confidentiality
- Quality
- Dependability

When producing corporate securities and financial documents, you require a print partner you can depend on to deliver accurate, complete, high-quality materials for regulatory and compliance purposes.

More often than not, deadlines are tight and time is of the essence.

Carbon Copy Digital has become a trusted provider of Securities and Financial Printing to Canada's leading law firms, publicly-traded companies and trust companies.

To meet the needs and demands of this specialized branch of printing, Carbon Copy Digital has a dedicated Securities and Financial Printing division.

It is staffed by a team of print professionals who are highly experienced in handling the complexities and intricacies unique to this sector. Our team utilizes the most advanced and flexible technology, which allows us to react quickly to deliver the highest caliber product possible.

Full-service Project Management takes the worry off of your shoulders.

A high-quality print product is just one part of the equation. Because of the critical nature of securities and financial documentation and filing, we leave nothing to chance.

Carbon Copy Digital provides full Project Management Services to our clients. A dedicated Project Manager acts as your primary point of contact and takes responsibility for all of the essential details of your project. We can even provide professional in-house typesetting and design services for those who require it.

Our Project Managers implement tried-and-tested procedures and systems to ensure timely and accurate delivery and distribution of our client's materials anywhere in the world.

In addition to our offices in Calgary and Edmonton, we provide timely print services across North America – including Toronto, Vancouver, Montreal and New York City.
